Walk around Kitsuki castle town

The Ohara Residence
An elite family of samurai lived in this house during the Edo period. The elegant Japanese garden is also a must-see. Inside the home, you can take a commemorative photo holding a Japanese sword, and you can enjoy fading Iko-a camera!

The Isoya Residence
This was where the lord would rest. The marvellous Japanese garden shows the beauty of the seasons. Please take your time here. You may freely play the Japanese harp placed in the house and enjoy its sounds.

The Sano Residence
This is the home of the Sano family that serve the town as doctors for 400 years. There trace way. This is the oldest of all the mansions remaining in the castle town.

The Hitotsumatsu Residence
This spot gives a wonderful view of Kitsuki Castle and the sea. Fabulous examples of Japanese architecture can be found throughout this luxuriously-built mansion.

The Kitsuki castle town Historical Museum
Kitsuki flourished as a castle town, and a number of the town's treasures are on display here. The gorgeous carriage of a high-ranking person is on display in the entrance hall.

Kitsuki Castle
This is the smallest castle in Japan, and the highlight is the view of the sea from the castle tower. Take a commemorative photo dressed as a warrior in a real suit of armor and helmet.

The Shigemitsu Residence
Shigemitsu Mamoru, who signed the Instrument of Surrender as minister of Foreign Affairs at the end of second world war, lived this house when he was student.

The Nomi Residence
There is a cafe inside this high-class samurai home, and you can relax as you enjoy sweets, etc. Please feel free to play the Japanese harp placed in the house and enjoy its sounds.

The Nakane Residence
This charming home belonged to an elite samurai family, and the site of the grounds shows how prosperous they were at the time. The tea-ceremony rooms inside the house are still used to hold tea ceremonies.
